3 To propose an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama
 4 of 2022, relating to Limestone County, to authorize a
 5 qualified taxpayer 65 years of age or older to claim a senior
 6 property tax exemption for real property owned in the county
 7 under certain conditions.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

9 Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution
 10 of Alabama of 2022, is proposed:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

12 (a) In Limestone County, an individual 65 years of age
 13 or older may claim a senior property tax exemption for ad
 14 valorem tax purposes on real property located in the county
 15 which is owned by the individual, classified as single-family
 16 owner-occupied residential property, and used as the principal
 17 place of residence of the individual for not less than five
 18 years immediately prior to the tax year for which the 19 individual first claims the senior property tax exemption. The 20 senior property tax exemption shall freeze the assessed value
 21 of the property for the year immediately prior to claiming the
 22 exemption.

MINUTES, LIMESTONE COUNTY COMMISSION, MARCH 2, 2026,
COMMISSION MEETING

23 (b) The following provisions shall apply to the 24 individual claiming the senior property tax exemption:

25 (1) The taxpayer shall continue to receive the senior
26 property tax exemption as long as the taxpayer continues to 27 use the property as his or her principal place of residence.

28 (2) The individual shall continue to be eligible to

29 claim a homestead exemption and any other exemption authorized
30 by law on the property.

31 (3) The property shall continue to be subject to any
32 millage rate changes on the property.

33 (4) The assessed value of any additions to the property
34 after claiming the senior property tax exemption shall be
35 added to the assessed value of the property and subject to ad
36 valorem tax based on the increase in the assessed value of the 37 addition after the taxpayer claims the senior property tax
38 exemption.

39 (5) This exemption may be claimed beginning October 1,
40 2027, for the value of the property on October 1, 2026.

41 (6) This exemption must be claimed in writing with the 42 Limestone County Revenue Commissioner between October 1 and 43 December 31.

44 Upon ratification of this constitutional amendment, the 45 Code Commissioner shall number and place this amendment as 46 appropriate in the constitution omitting this instructional
47 paragraph and may make the following nonsubstantive revisions:
48 change capitalization, hierarchy, spelling, and punctuation
49 for purposes of style and uniformity; correct manifest
50 grammatical, clerical, and typographical errors; revise
51 internal or external citations and cross-references; harmonize
52 language; and translate effective dates.

53 END PROPOSED AMENDMENT

54 Section 2. An election upon the proposed amendment
55 shall be held in accordance with Sections 284, 284.01, and 285
56 of the Constitution of Alabama of 2022, and the election laws

Dear Mr. Daws:

We would first like to thank you for considering our services for this project. We have reviewed your request concerning the above referenced project to provide the following services:

Appraisal - Appraisal will be completed in accordance to State and Federal guidelines and following USPAP. We will be using an appraiser who is qualified with this type report

We have estimated that our fees will not exceed $3,500.00 to provide the above services. This fee is based on the information provided by your office. This proposal does not include negotiations, appraisal updates, second appraisals, appraisals for court or expert witness fees. If it is determined that these services will be needed, we can add them in a supplemental agreement.

Thank you again for considering our services and we look forward to working with you. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

MINUTES, LIMESTONE COUNTY COMMISSION, MARCH 2, 2026,
COMMISSION MEETING

Commissioner Ruf stated his crew is actively working on trimming trees and patching roads. He noted he is preparing a list of roads to be paved this paving season.

Commissioner Turner stated he is finalizing his paving list and plans to utilize additional funds to upgrade a major intersection in the eastern part of the county.

Commissioner Gatlin gave an update on Laugh Miller Road. He also stated that a temporary strip will be placed on Lucas Ferry Road until a wearing layer is placed.

Commissioner Townsend thanked the commission body for voting on the additional infrastructure money which will allow each district to pave more roads. He also thanked the engineering department for everything they do.

Chairman Daly stated that the infrastructure funding will make a significant difference for Limestone County. He also thanked everyone who made this possible.

Adjourned at 10:03 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. for a special meeting. Next meeting is Monday, March 16, 2026, at the Clinton Street Courthouse Annex, 100 South Clinton Street, Athens, Alabama.
